

Job Description – Navitas Semiconductor

Title: Quality Systems Manager

Reports to: VP, Quality

Work location: Hsinchu, Taiwan

Job purpose:

The Quality Systems Manager will be responsible for developing robust processes for Navitas key operations, engineering and quality processes.

Responsibilities and Accountabilities:

- Implement internal audit program
- Develop Navitas quality systems prioritized by business requirements
- Develop supplier management system across manufacturing operations
- Lead the Document Control function
- Prepare Navitas quality systems for certification to ISO9001 requirements
- Prepare Navitas suppliers for Automotive customer audits and Navitas new product launches

Skills, Experience and Expectations:

- Engineering degree and 10+ years of experience in quality, engineering or manufacturing functions in the semiconductor industry
- 5+ years developing and improving Quality Systems
- Experienced and Certified auditor
- Hands on contributor with the ability to define and execute strategy
- Responsive, service-oriented approach with the ability to develop a proactive quality culture; Strong leadership skills and Self-directed behavior
- Travel up to 25%